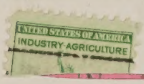
NOTICE

Due to world conditions and us located in a defense area it has been hard to produce a crop this past season. Therefore we do not have the amounts of some varieties to offer and can only offer all stocks subject to prior sale.

With labor doubtful for the rush season we will have to fill your orders as we can get to them, so first come first served, but will try and see that you get your bulbs by planting time. Order early please and help us. Thanks!

All varieties marked with * are not listed in last catalogue so no full descriptions are made this year. Consult any listing of the newer Glads and am sure you will find descriptions of same.



TERMS

Consult 1942 catalogue. Terms and conditions same as in catalogue. If you do not have one of our 1942 catalogues or have mislayed yours, drop us a card and we will send you another one as long as they last.

"The Gladiolus"

Published by

THE NEW ENGLAND GLADIOLUS SOCIETY

Organized 1920 Incorporated 1935

240-page book, bound in cloth boards, stamped in gold (illustrated), with new articles, reports of shows; and advertisements of over 50 leading growers of Gladiolus. Some new and interesting features are listed below.

Report from the Army: — Glad Letters from Home Giving Reports on All His Varieties while He is in the Service, Miles C. Labrum, former Secretary Utah Gladiolus Society.

New Varieties: — Maryland Trial Garden Report, 1942, Md. G. S.; Symposium of 1942 Show Winners, Dr. B. E. Lovesey, Boston; Best Varieties, by Color Classes; completed results of four years trials, rated by J. R. Hopkins, Illinois; Variety Winners, N.E.G.S. 1942 Exhibition; 1942 Purples Outstanding, by W. M. Anderson, N. Y.

Information for the Novice and Beginner: — Culture for Beginners, L. E. May, Illinois; Preparing Blooms for the Show, Carl Salbach, California.

Parentages of Gladiolus: — Complete list of all known parentages of named varieties, alphabetically arranged to include sports, etc. This is an invaluable permanent record, by Rev. C. H. Birch, N. Y.

Vegetables Mix Well with Gladiolus: — Paul W. Dempey, Mass. State College, author of the 1942 sensationally successful book on Vegetable Culture gives very readable human suggestions. N.E.G.S. will stage Vegetable Classes at 1943 exhibition, by L. G. Bruggemann, Pres. N.E.G.S., twice president Hingham Agricultural and Horticultural Society.

Research: — Colchecine Mutation, by Leo Matthews, Indiana; New Method of Growing from Seed, P. Barrett, Quebec; Bulblet Treatment to Stimulate Germination, F. E. Denny, Boyce Thompson Institute, Yonkers, N. Y.

The book is a rich storehouse of valuable and intensely interesting material, free to all N. E. G. S. members, published by this non-profit organization devoted to the collection of research and other material on the Gladiolus from all available sources and, to the dissemination of such knowledge to more than 3000 members located in every state, all Canadian provinces and some overseas countries.
